Speaker Highlights

We've got a fantastic line up of speakers for you at the conference.

Allow us to introduce you to a few of them...

Daniel Carall-Green

Daniel holds a First Class (Hons) LLB from BPP Law School and a Double First in BA Classics and Classical Languages, Literature and Linguistics from Oxford University. He is a barrister and a member of Fountain Court chambers in London, with extensive experience in arbitration, finance, antitrust, and tortious disputes. He previously served as a solicitor-advocate at a Magic Circle law firm.

Fernanda Farina

Fernanda is an ESG and Human Rights Consultant, and qualified lawyer, advising companies on responsible sourcing, sustainability and social impact. Fernanda has a DPhil in Socio-Legal Studies (Oxford) and 13+ years of experience in public and private sectors, civil society and academia. She is passionate about advancing human rights and sustainability.

Victoria Hawley

Victoria studied International Relations at Western University in Canada where she graduated with Distinction and on the Dean's List. Victoria then studied Law at the University of Liverpool where she competed twice in the Jessup Moot, co-writing the highest scoring legal argument and ranking in the top 10 legal advocates in the UK.
